

NEWS AND VIEWS . . .

And What Have You

By BOB CRAIG

The Highway and Transportation Committee of the BCD met the other day with a representative of Tex-Pack Express, Inc. and it was announced that Hamlin is now being served with a daily delivery service by this firm.

This is a small package, fast express service that has long been needed in the state. This is particularly true here in Hamlin since we no longer have bus service to handle small packages.

This service will be a boon to those who need parts out of Abilene or Dallas.

The express service is limited to packages weighing less than 100 pounds so that it does not conflict with freight lines now in operation.

At the present time the service is just about limited to incoming packages as the firm does not operate a local office and can not be reached locally for pickup service. It is anticipated that if the service grows and the demand becomes great enough then there may be a local agent here.

We doubt that much would come of it, but we would like to see this same BCD committee look into the possibility of convincing the Oklahoma Transportation Co. that operates the bus line between Abilene and Wichita Falls to route their bus through Hamlin.

We are not sure how busses are running daily between these two points, but it would benefit Hamlin greatly if just one north and one south bus would come through here.

It would likely add 45 minutes to their run but between the passenger service and the express service we would think that it would prove profitable to the bus company.

If you have ever ridden a bus very far, you know that they run them off of a straight line much further than this would be.

It is quite a handicap to a town the size of Hamlin to be without any public transportation and it would seem to us that some pressure could be brought to bear at the state level.

We notice that the legislature is getting closer to passing a State Minimum Wage Law. We have mixed emotions about such a bill. While we are sure that there are many cases where workers are being underpaid, we are afraid that more people will be hurt than helped by such a law.

The state bill would bring the state minimum up to the level of the federal minimum wage in a couple of years. Since this would cover everybody, it would mean that every store or place of business would be paying $1.60 an hour as a minimum.

Locally, we are afraid that a number of people would find themselves without a job because some types of businesses can just not afford this kind of a payroll cost. This is particularly true of part time help.

We suspect that this will just bring on more self-service of at least less service. Those who keep their jobs will of course be better off if they get a raise out of the measure but for those who lose a job because of it will not be quite so pleased.

As with the federal minimum wage, the state bill makes no provision for training or for part-time help and does not take into consideration local economic factors.

With the local office closed on Saturday, motorists have only three days left in which to purchase their car, trailer or truck tags. The tags must be on the vehicles by Tuesday. The last report we had from Louie Cunningham was that only about half of the cars have been registered.

There is just a little over two weeks left to have your car inspected as this deadline is April 15.

Police Warn Merchants of Phoney Groups

Hamlin merchants were warned this week about a fake law enforcement organization soliciting advertisements by telephone. According to Chief of Police Bryan Wasson, the following names are being used: Auxiliary Police and Reserve, Law Officers Association of Texas, Texas Reserve Law, Texas Reserve Law Officers Publishing Co.

Chief Wasson said that these names should not be confused with Southwestern Law Magazine which is the official publication of the "Law Enforcement Officers Association of Texas."

The Hamlin Police Department will be featured in a forthcoming issue of the "Southwestern Law Magazine" and Euel White will be calling on local merchants representing the magazine, according to Chief Wasson.

Chief Wasson urged any merchant to contact him if they had any doubt or would like to ask any questions concerning this matter.

Ledbetter Sets New Record At C-City Meet

Ernest Ledbetter set a new meet record in the discus at the Colorado City Track Meet this past weekend with a 150'11" throw. The Pipers took fifth place with 26 points in the AA and AAA meet.

Track Coach Roger Moore said that this was the toughest meet the team had entered so far and that the boys gave their best performance of the season.

The team will compete in the two-day San Angelo meet this Friday and Saturday.

Other results in the Colorado City meet besides Ledbetter's first place were: Robert Bolden fourth in the 100 yard (9.9), James Asher fourth in the pole vault (10'6") and fourth in the 330 hurdles (42.5). The relay teams captured sixth with the 440 team of Bobby McKissack, Don Bockman, Asher and Bolden having a time of 46.0 and the mile relay team of Earl Webb, Asher, Charlie Sellers and Duane Stewart having a time of 3:44.6.

Mrs. Robert W. Burns of Dallas spent last week visiting her mother, Mrs. H. C. Hodnett. She also visited in the homes of Audrey and Wayne Hodnett of Hamlin and J. C. Hodnett and family in Winters, Texas.

PREPARING FOR FASHION SHOW -- Plans are being completed for the Jaycee-ette Spring Fashion Show and Salad Supper to be held today (Thursday) at 7:30 p.m. in the high school cafeteria. Mrs. James Crowley, right, in upper photo, and Mrs. Chester Jenkins at Heidenheimer's decide on a silver bow for the shoes Mrs. Crowley will be wearing with the blue ensemble Mrs. Jenkins holds. In the right photo, Mrs. Clifford Eoff is wearing the dress she will model for Frank's after she selected the accessories to complement the orange and white dress. Tickets for the event are being sold by the Jaycee-ettes and will be available at the door while they last. Other merchants taking part in the fashion showing are McDonalds, T.O. Flowers, and The Fashion Shop. Tickets are $1.50 for adults and 75¢ for children under 12.

Vehicle Registration Deadline Tuesday

Vehicle registration in Hamlin is going somewhat normally, according to Louie Cunningham of McCollum-Cunningham Insurance Agency, who operates the local sub-station for the county. Only about half of the vehicles had been registered here with a week left before the deadline.

Cunningham said his office would not be open Saturday and that motorists have only four days left to get their license plates.

Motorists have until midnight next Tuesday (April 1) to get their license plates and get them on their vehicles. There can be no extension of the deadline since it is set by law, according to a Texas Highway Department spokesman.

What happens if a motorist fails to get his license plates in time? He still must obtain plates and at a 20 per cent increase in fee as a late penalty. If he should drive his vehicle without the new license plates, he can be fined up to $200 for operating without current license plates.

Motorists may obtain license plates at county tax offices and sub-stations throughout Texas. State law requires each owner to register his vehicle in the county in which he resides and to present his title as evidence of ownership. Besides the vehicle title, motorists will need last year's registration receipt, current address and correct ZIP code to obtain license plates.

It is more important that the correct residence address appear on 1969 registration records. Texas motor vehicle registration records are being computerized. This will result in greater registration convenience next year.

In 1970, vehicle owners will be mailed a special pre-prepared registration form, which eliminates most of the time-consuming typing by the registration clerk. Motorists will need only to bring the form to the county tax office or registration station, pay the fee and have the form validated with new numbers.

Literary Club Hears Program On Education

Members of the Woman's Literary Club heard a program on education presented by three local teachers at the Friday afternoon meeting in the home of Mrs. A. A. Hackley.

Directed by Mrs. C. F. Cook, the teachers symposium featured Mrs. Leldon Clifton, second grade teacher; Miss Lola Milstead, sixth grade math teacher, and Mrs. Joe Youngblood, high school English teacher and librarian.

Mrs. Clifton pointed out characteristics of the six and seven year olds in the first and second grades. She used information from the book "These Are Your Children" as reference material and added that it is a very good guide on child development.

She said the six-year-old is eager to learn, restless and easily fatigued. "They are aggressive by nature, want to be first, want to be the leader, are less cooperative than at five and are given to boasting and bragging and are inconsistent in the level of maturity." "They have special needs," she added, "they need encouragement often, need ample praise and great patience from adults. They need some responsibilities, but only ones that won't require decisions."

"The seven-year-olds are more sensitive to the feelings and attitudes of their peers and adults than the six-year-olds," she continued. "They want adult approval."

The seven year old's special need is for the right combination of independence and encouraging support, she said.

She advocated setting the pattern early of getting homework before play.

Mrs. Clifton mentioned that the physical health should not be neglected noting that children should be encouraged to eat well-balanced meals and be urged to try new foods. Plenty of rest was also emphasized.

Miss Milstead spoke of junior high school as being a land of change as the students were taking new subjects, having several teachers, and that they themselves were making physical and emotional changes.

She said they are great followers and were looking for leaders. "They have enthusiasm to let and this is a time for decision for them as they are now making their own choices of subjects."

Miss Milstead said that she believed that the junior high age youngsters' energies should be guided into something beneficial.

Mrs. Youngblood cited the needs for change in methods of teaching. She said, "We are not reaching the goal we are trying to reach. The methods of 10 years ago are not reaching the students. Teachers are continually changing teaching methods."

She said that the administration is aware of the need for new subjects — vocational subjects in our high schools. Students must be trained to make a living whether it be after college or upon graduation from high school. Their education has to be something they can use.

Of utmost importance to the student, Mrs. Youngblood noted is learning to work together effectively, and learning to live harmoniously with other people.

Mrs. L. H. McBride, president, presided.

The next meeting will be Apr. 11 in the home of Mrs. Cecil Hardaway. Mrs. R. D. Moore will conduct a quiz on Texas Motor Vehicle Laws. All members will take part.

Mr. and Mrs. Cipriano R. Almanza of Rotan are parents of a girl, Victoria Ramona, born Mar. 20 at 12:05 p.m. She weighed 8 lbs. 10 oz.

THIS IS A RE-RUN

Because we made an error in printing Mrs. Revis Robertson's recipe last week we are running it again so that our readers will have a complete and correct recipe.

We hope our readers that tried the recipe were not disappointed with the cookies, but ½ teaspoon sugar was just not right.

FORTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
(March 14, 1924)

It will be interesting to know that near Hamlin, next week there will appear many prominent men of West Texas and with them will be a herd of Wolf Dogs, the like this country has never seen before.

C. S. Low, manager of the meet, wants it understood that this is not to be a 'roughbunch' but a crowd of good men who are striving to clear the country of wolves. Low says there will not be anything strong to drink except gyp water. In case of snake bites Low will furnish all medicine.

There is nouse in anyone going hungry in Hamlin these days. Hamlin has some of the best cafes in the state for the size town. The latest place of eating is FRY'S CAFE that opens up this Saturday.

Mrs. G. N. Davenport was hostess to the Twentieth Century Bridge Club. In a close series of games, Mrs. North held high score. Others present were Mrs. Bynum, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. North, Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Fred Moore, Mrs. Louie Hardy and Mrs. B. Moseley.

The Woman's Literary Club of Hamlin will hold an Art Exhibit, featuring the Guering Prints on Saturday afternoon, at the Morgan House.

The American Legion, under the direction of Post Commander Clem Calhoun, held its regular meeting Monday night. The meeting could clearly be defined as one of accomplishment and progress. Splendid musical numbers were rendered through courtesy of Mrs. Neff and the High School Orchestra. Several readings of merit were given by our local talent.

TWENTY YEARS AGO
(March 11, 1949)

Hamlin area farmers and others are closely watching the trend of prices as new turns in national and world conditions are affecting the markets of the country.

Farm prices flattened out in January after dropping 13 per cent from record levels during the latter part of 1948.

Three men from the Hamlin area are included in the number of registrants who signed up for military draft during the past month, it was reported last week. They are James E. Lewis, McCaulley, Glen R. Blake, Sylvester, and Charles Wesley Campbell, Hamlin.

As a safeguard against the serious and disabling disease known as undulant fever or Malta fever, Dr. George W. Cox, State health officer, has advised Texans to drink milk from approved sources only. Undulant fever is usually acquired by human beings as a result of consuming raw milk or raw milk products from cows infected with Bang's disease.

The Farmers & Merchants National Bank joins with the hundreds of other Hamlin citizens in congratulating T. C. Blankinship and his group of fine students, who once again have won so many honors in the county stock show.

TEN YEARS AGO
(March 19, 1959)

Drive to raise funds for the Crippled Children's Foundation in the Hamlin community is being sponsored this week-end by members of the Xi Gamma Pi and Beta Theta Sororities, according to Mrs. John C. Bryant.

Spring production of the 1959 senior class play of Hamlin High School, a three-act comedy, "Head First" by Glenn Hughes, will be revealed at 8:00 o'clock Friday evening in the high school auditorium.

R. L. (Dick) McClung, manager of the Midwest Cooperative Oil Mill, was elected president of the Hamlin Foundation, Inc., at the first business meeting of the unit this year Monday evening at the oil mill guest house. He succeeds Bobby Crowley.

Despite seasonal withdrawals, cattle feeding, crop preparation, ad valorem and income taxpaying by its patrons, deposits at the Farmers & Merchants National Bank in Hamlin continued to hold above the $5,000,000 mark in the recent official statement of condition, made at the close of business on March 12.

Cub Scouts of Hamlin community celebrated their thirteenth birthday with a potluck blue and gold banquet last week.

Sunset Baptist Revival Underway

Revival at Sunset Baptist Church this week features as evangelist Rev. Clayton McMillan, Baptist minister from Muleshoe.

Services are being held nightly through Sunday with Freddy Weaver as music director. Rev. James Brigham is pastor.

God's Purposes

If you were having a picnic at the lake at approximately this spot, you might say, "Well, why did the engineers leave those trees in the water when they made this lake? They create such an eyesore. I can see no purpose in it." Yet, fishermen tell us that the fish love those old tree stumps and roots and that you can almost always find fish swimming in the dark recesses around and between these trees.

So many times we question God's wisdom in allowing some things to be and other things to come to pass. But God is good and his purposes are wise. The very thing that seems useless to us, might make us marvel if we could see with Heaven's eyes.

As Isaiah reminds us, "For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the Lord. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts."

But he also wants us to know that his thoughts are many toward us and that everything works toward our good and our salvation. If we had no conflicts, and no questions, we would never have the opportunity to step out on faith.

Come to church Sunday and learn of God, his purposes, and the unsearchable riches of his love.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny, the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Neinda Philosopher Tries His Hand At Keeping Daily Log Of His Work For One Day Only

Editor's note: The Neinda Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Route One reports on a strange item he discovered out of Washington. Dear editor:

People are always talking about all the rules and regulations Washington is always thinking up for people, so it was with considerable amazement I read in a newspaper last night that Washington has thought up some for itself.

The Attorney General's Department, out of force of habit I guess, has come up with a set of rules for the 1,200 lawyers it has in the Justice Department. Every lawyer must keep a log every fifteen minutes of every day of how he spent his time. What he did from 9 a.m. to 9:15 has to be entered, from 9:15 to 9:30, etc., right on through the entire day, five days a week.

What I want to know is, do you reckon there's any danger of this spreading?

Are we getting close to the time when Washington will require me for an example to give a daily account of how I spent my time from sun-up to sun-down?

Since you never can tell and I like to be ahead of the bounds, so to speak, so long as the bounds are asleep, I decided to jot down what I did yesterday, just to see how it works.

6 a.m. to 6:30: studied about getting up.

6:40: got up.

7 to 7:30: waited for breakfast.

7:30 to 8: ate.

8 to 9: planned my day's work.

9 to 10: revised my plans.

10 to 11: can't remember.

11 to 12: too near lunch to

Glyn Hammons Named Assistant S. S. Director
Glyn Hammons became the new assistant district manager for the Social Security Administration's Abilene district on March 24, according to word from R. R. Tuley, Jr., district manager. He fills the position vacancy caused by the December 1968 death of Ralph T. Fisher.

Hammons was promoted to this larger district from a five year tenure as assistant district manager at El Dorado, Arkansas. He had previous service in the Dallas, Santa Fe, and Tulsa districts, prior to his El Dorado assignment. Aged 31, he is married and has three children, and was very active in church, civic, school, and recreational affairs at El Dorado. The family will reside at 1526 Marsalis Street in Abilene.

He expects to start his get-acquainted tasks in the area by accompanying field representatives from the Abilene office to some nineteen towns in the district as opportunities present themselves.

How to Make $20 Million In Jones County

There are 14 gins in Jones County.

By January 1, 1969, those 14 gins had wrapped bagging and ties around 67,279 bales of 1968 cotton, and had separated from the lint about 22,500 tons of cottonseed.

The cotton was sold for about $100 per bale; the seed, for $50 per ton. Total sales value — $7,852,900.

But the farmer didn't keep the money — he spent it. Ginning costs alone averaged about $19 per bale, or $1,278,000. And before that, the farmer had plowed and planted and cultivated the 65,000 acres of land from which the seed cotton was harvested. He needed — and bought — equipment, seed, herbicide and labor. He needed insurance and financing, gasoline and tires, food and clothing and shelter. According to researchers at the University of Texas, over 90 cents of every dollar of sales value had been spent for direct inputs or cost of production before the crop was harvested.

And, then the seed was processed — gins sold to oil mills, and used the $5 to $7 margin per ton (another $140,000) to reduce the cost of ginning, and of course, to make a little profit. The cotton was hauled, warehoused, and compressed for shipment. Here again was a margin to cover labor and investment, and of course, to make a little profit.

The $7.8 million became $8 million, and was spent, and spent again. Each dollar of new money was used 2.5

times before the cotton left Jones County. The $8 million soon grew to $20 million, a tremendous sum of money.

What would we do without it? How could we pay the taxes, and feed the poor, and hire the unemployed, and educate the young'uns?

Don't kid yourself — we couldn't.

Moral: We have a good thing going. Support your local cotton industry! Buy cotton — talk cotton — join Rolling Plains Cotton Growers, and encourage your neighbor to join!
